REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD.

The village schools have been taught this year by the same teachers, Miss Ellen E. Connor, and Miss Elizabeth A. Abbott, and under their instruction the pupils have made steady improvement.

The autumn and winter terms at the rural school have been taught by Miss Alice M. Haskell. She failed to win the goodwill of the children and the respect of their parents, and as a natural result the school was not a success.

She was succeeded by Miss Sawyer of Worcester, Mass., who gained the affection of her pupils at the outset, and is doing excellent work in her school.
